VOTING

Only holders of record of Common Stock at the close of business on March 14, 2003 will be entitled to vote at the annual meeting or any adjournment thereof. On March 14, 2003, there were 67,339,456 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding, and we had no other class of equity securities outstanding. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote at the annual meeting on all matters properly presented.

The presence at the annual meeting of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting.

Assuming the presence of a quorum, the seven persons receiving the greatest number of votes of the Common Stock cast at the annual meeting by the holders of stock entitled to vote shall be elected as directors of Ocwen. Assuming the presence of a quorum, the proposal to adopt the Amended 1998 Annual Incentive Plan and the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Ocwen's independent auditor for 2003 and any other matter properly submitted to shareholders for their consideration at the annual meeting (other than the election of directors) shall be approved if the votes cast by the holders of the shares represented at the annual meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action.

With regard to the election of directors, shareholders may vote in favor of or withhold authority to vote for one or more nominees for director. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes in connection with the election of one or more nominees for director will not be counted as votes cast for such individuals and accordingly will have no effect. Abstentions may be specified on all other proposals. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in determining the votes cast in connection with the proposal to adopt the Amended 1998 Annual Incentive Plan and the proposal to ratify the appointment of Ocwen's independent auditor and thus will have no effect on such proposals.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS
(Proposal One)

Ocwen's Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors of Ocwen shall be comprised of between three and seven members, with the exact number to be fixed by the Board of Directors. On July 25, 2002, the Board of Directors fixed the number of directors at seven pursuant to the Bylaws of Ocwen. Directors are elected annually and hold office until the earlier of the election and qualification of their successors or their resignation and removal.

Accordingly, Ocwen will propose seven directors for election at the annual meeting. Six of the seven persons standing for election at the annual meeting are currently directors of Ocwen. Hon. Thomas F. Lewis is not standing for re-election, as he has decided to retire from his service to Ocwen. There are no arrangements or understandings between any nominee for director and any other person pursuant to which such person was selected as a nominee. No director is related to any other director or executive officer of Ocwen by blood, marriage or adoption.

If any person named as nominee should be unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the annual meeting, the person or persons appointed as proxies will nominate and vote for a replacement nominee or nominees recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees listed below would not be able to serve as director if elected.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

No director of Ocwen attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors held during 2002 and the total number of meetings held by all committees thereof on which he served during the period.

The Board of Directors of Ocwen has established an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nomination/Governance Committee. A brief description of these Committees is set forth below.

The Executive Committee is generally responsible to act on behalf of the Board of Directors during the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors. This Committee met 44 times during 2002.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors manages Ocwen's independent auditors, reviews and advises the Board of Directors with respect to reports by Ocwen's independent auditor and monitors Ocwen's compliance with laws and regulations applicable to Ocwen's operations including the evaluation of significant matters relating to the financial reporting process and system of internal accounting controls of Ocwen and the review of the scope and results of the annual audit conducted by the independent auditor. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, on which Ocwen's Common Stock is listed. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the whole Board of Directors and included as Exhibit B to this Proxy. This Committee met five times during 2002.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors oversees Ocwen's compensation and employee benefit plans and practices. The Compensation Committee also evaluates and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors for human resource and compensation matters relating to the executive officers of Ocwen. Stockholders wishing to recommend persons for consideration by the Nomination/Governance Committee as nominees for election to the Board of Directors can do so by writing to the Secretary of Ocwen Financial Corporation, 1675 Palm Beach Lakes Boulevard, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, giving each proposed nominee's name, biographical data and qualifications. The recommendation should also include a written statement from the proposed nominee consenting to be named as a nominee and, if nominated and elected, to serve as a director. For consideration, such recommendations must be received by Ocwen by December 1, 2003.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPENSATION

Pursuant to a Directors Stock Plan adopted by the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Ocwen in July 1996, the Directors are currently compensated by delivering to each a total annual value of $16,000 payable in shares of Common Stock (which may be prorated for a director serving less than a full one-year term, as in the case of a director joining the Board of Directors after an annual meeting of shareholders), subject to review and adjustment by the Board of Directors from time to time. Such payment is made after the annual organizational meeting of the Board of Directors, which follows the annual meeting of shareholders of Ocwen. An additional annual fee payable in shares of Common Stock, which currently amounts to $2,000, subject to review and adjustment by the Board of Directors from time to time, is paid to committee chairs after the annual organizational meeting of the Board of Directors. During 2002, an aggregate of 17,523 shares of Common Stock was granted to the seven directors of Ocwen, including the shares received by the three committee chairs.

The number of shares issued pursuant to the Directors Stock Plan is based on the "fair market value" of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The term "fair market value" is defined in the Directors Stock Plan to mean the average of the high and low prices of the Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on the relevant date.

Shares issued pursuant to the Directors Stock Plan, other than the committee chair fee shares, are subject to forfeiture during the 12 full calendar months following election or appointment to the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, if the director does not attend an aggregate of at least 75% of all meetings of the Board of Directors and committees thereof of which he is a member during such period.

Messrs. Erbey, Faris, Martin and Wish also serve on the Board of Directors of Ocwen Federal Bank, FSB. During 2002, the Bank compensated its non-management directors by delivering to each a total annual value of $10,000 in cash, paid in equal quarterly installments in arrears, in respect of their service on the Bank's Board of Directors. An additional annual payment of $2,000 in cash, paid in equal quarterly installments in arrears, was paid to committee chairs. During 2002, an aggregate of $42,500 in cash was paid to five directors of Ocwen in respect of their service as members of the Board of Directors of the Bank, including as chairman of the committees of the Bank's Board of Directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Determinations regarding compensation of Ocwen's employees are made by Ocwen's Compensation Committee. No member of the Committee is or at any time was an employee of Ocwen or any subsidiary, nor did any member of the Committee have an interest in a transaction, which would require disclosure hereunder.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for establishing management compensation policies and procedures to be reflected in the compensation program offered to the executive officers of Ocwen and the Bank. The Committee shares jurisdiction with the full Board of Directors over the administration of and grants under the Stock Option Plan.

General Compensation Policies. The broad general salary and benefit guidelines are determined by the Committee. Ocwen seeks to provide executives with long-term wealth accumulation capability, conditional upon personal performance, individual service longevity and consistent high level financial performance of Ocwen. With respect to Ocwen's officers other than Mr. William C. Erbey, the Committee considered salary and bonus recommendations prepared by Mr. William C. Erbey or other executive officers to determine fiscal 2002 compensation. The salary adjustment recommendations were based on Ocwen's overall performance in the past year and an analysis of compensation levels necessary to maintain and attract quality personnel. It is through this process that Ocwen is able to compete for and retain talented executives who are critical to Ocwen's long-term success and align the interests of those executives with the long-term interests of Ocwen's shareholders.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Ocwen's primary incentive compensation plan for executives is the 1998 Annual Incentive Plan. Pursuant to the current plan, a participant can earn cash and stock option awards as determined by the Compensation Committee. In addition, the Committee has approved a proposal to amend this Plan, which is subject to shareholder approval, to include awards of restricted stock. The Committee believes that stock option and restricted stock awards help to focus attention on managing Ocwen from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the business. The awards are based on objective performance criteria established by the Committee pursuant to the Plan, which includes growth in our core businesses, reduction in non-core assets and cost savings through Six Sigma initiatives and utilization of India operations. Each participant has a targeted annual incentive award that is expressed as a percentage of total target compensation and varies with the participant's level of responsibility. At the executive level, 20-60% of each executive's total target compensation is at risk and payable only upon achievement of certain minimum Company and individual performance levels. The incentive awards are structured so that the compensation opportunities for executives are related to the levels of business unit and individual performances actually achieved. In the case of corporate support functions, performance against budget is also considered in addition to the criteria listed above.

Discretionary Stock Option Awards. During 2001, discretionary stock option awards were made to five individuals (Messrs. Faris and Zeidman are the only executive officers receiving awards) in an aggregate amount of 360,000 options to purchase an equal number of shares of Common Stock. The objective of these options, which have an exercise price of $12.55, was to create a direct link between executive compensation and long-term Company performance. The exercise price was based on the price of our Common Stock at the time of grant plus fifty percent of the difference between the terminal value and the price of Ocwen's Common Stock on the NYSE at the time of the grant. The terminal value was calculated assuming a twenty-five percent per annum appreciation in the price of the Common Stock at the time of the grant. In determining the appropriate individuals and level of each award, the Committee considered the executive's contribution toward Company performance and the executives who were in a position and had the responsibility to make a substantial contribution to the long-term success of Ocwen.

Other Compensation. The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to other employee benefit plans is to provide competitive benefits to employees of Ocwen and the Bank, including executive officers. A competitive comprehensive benefit program is essential to achieving the goal of attracting and retaining highly qualified employees.

Tax Considerations. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the tax deduction by corporate taxpayers is limited with respect to the compensation of certain executive officers to $1 million per covered executive unless such compensation is based upon the attainment of performance objectives meeting certain regulatory criteria or is otherwise excluded from the limitation. Ocwen obtained shareholder approval of the 1998 Annual Incentive Plan and the LTIP in order to qualify awards under such plans as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code. It is the Compensation Committee's intention to qualify all performance-based compensation for the exclusion from the deductibility limitation of 162(m), except in situations where qualifying compensation for the exclusion would be inconsistent with the overall best interest of Ocwen.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. In determining the overall compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee considered the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the financial performance achieved by Ocwen during the past fiscal year. For the CEO, incentive compensation for 2002 was based largely on performance against specific goals including growth of our loan servicing business and growth in our other core businesses, reduction in non-core assets and cost savings, including those attributable to increased utilization of our India operations centers and to our Six Sigma initiatives.

PROPOSAL TO ADOPT THE AMENDED 1998 ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN
(Proposal Two)

The Board of Directors of Ocwen has approved, subject to shareholder approval, the Ocwen Financial Corporation Amended 1998 Annual Incentive Plan (the "Annual Incentive Plan") to amend Ocwen's former annual incentive plan. The Annual Incentive Plan is substantially similar to the prior plan and was amended to provide the Compensation Committee the option to award Common Stock in lieu of cash. The Annual Incentive Plan is being submitted for shareholder approval in order to qualify compensation under the Annual Incentive Plan as performance-based compensation for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

The purpose of the Annual Incentive Plan is to advance the success of Ocwen and to thereby increase shareholder value by promoting the attainment of significant business objectives by Ocwen and its business units by basing a portion of the annual compensation of selected officers and key employees on the attainment of such objectives.

Summary of the Annual Incentive Plan. The following is a summary of the Annual Incentive Plan. The complete text of the Annual Incentive Plan is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement.

Term. The effective date of the Annual Incentive Plan is May 15, 2003, subject to approval of the Annual Incentive Plan by the shareholders of Ocwen. The Annual Incentive Plan does not have a fixed expiration date.

Administration. The Annual Incentive Plan will be administered by the Compensation Committee of Ocwen's Board of Directors or, in certain events, by the full Board of Directors (the "Annual Incentive Plan Committee"). The Annual Incentive Plan Committee has sole and complete authority to make awards under the Annual Incentive Plan, to determine the terms and conditions of such awards and to interpret and make all other determinations affecting the Annual Incentive Plan. The Annual Incentive Plan Committee may, with respect to participants in the Annual Incentive Plan (each an "AIP Participant") who are not subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act and Section 162(m) of the Code, delegate such of its powers and authority under the Annual Incentive Plan to Ocwen's Chairman, President or Chief Executive Officer as it deems appropriate.

Participation. Participation in the Annual Incentive Plan is limited to officers and other key employees of Ocwen and designated subsidiaries who are selected from time to time by the Annual Incentive Plan Committee. Participation in the Annual Incentive Plan does not preclude participation in any other employee benefit plans of Ocwen and does not create any rights to continued employment.

Performance Targets and Section 162(m) of the Code. The Annual Incentive Plan Committee will designate performance targets under the Annual Incentive Plan for each year. The performance targets will be and, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, shall be any one of the following measures: (i) net earnings; (ii) return on equity; (iii) average equity used; or (iv) growth in assets. Section 162(m) of the Code provides in general that compensation in excess of $1.0 million per year paid to the chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated officers of a public company is not deductible by the corporation; provided, that certain performance-based compensation may be excluded from this deductibility limitation if, among other things, (i) the compensation is paid solely on account of the attainment of one or more performance goals, (ii) the performance goals are established by a compensation committee consisting solely of two or more outside directors, (iii) the material terms under which the compensation is to be paid, including the performance goals, are disclosed to and approved by the shareholders prior to payment, and (iv) prior to payment, the compensation committee certifies that the performance goals were, in fact, satisfied. Approval of the Annual Incentive Plan by the shareholders of Ocwen will constitute approval of the Annual Incentive Plan, including approval of the performance objectives, for purposes of Section 162(m). It is the current intention of the Board of Directors that all otherwise tax deductible compensation payable under the Annual Incentive Plan be excludable from the limitation on deductibility imposed by Section 162(m).

Maximum Annual Awards. The maximum bonus amount payable under the Annual Incentive Plan to any AIP Participant shall not exceed $2,000,000 for any year. This maximum bonus amount represents only the maximum bonus awards under the Annual Incentive Plan. Additional discretionary bonuses may be awarded by Ocwen outside of the Annual Incentive Plan. Any such discretionary amounts would be subject to the $1,000,000 deductibility limit under Section 162(m) of the Code.

Ocwen currently expects that all or a substantial majority of such compensation will fall within the deductibility limits (assuming shareholder approval of the Annual Incentive Plan and, therefore, be fully deductible). It is possible, however, that a portion of the compensation paid to an executive officer of Ocwen may not be deductible under the Code.

Certification of Achievement of Performance Standards. The Annual Incentive Plan Committee shall, prior to any payment under the Annual Incentive Plan, certify in writing the extent, if any, of achievement of performance standards for each AIP Participant. For purposes of this provision, the approved minutes of the Annual Incentive Plan Committee meeting in which the certification is made may be treated as a written certification.

Reduction or Termination of Payment. The Annual Incentive Plan Committee may, in its sole discretion, establish certain additional performance-based conditions that must be satisfied by Ocwen, a business unit of Ocwen or the AIP Participant as a condition precedent to the payment of all or a portion of any awards. Such conditions precedent may include, among other things, the receipt by an AIP Participant of a specified annual performance rating and the achievement of specified performance goals by Ocwen, the business unit or AIP Participant.

Payment of Awards. Awards under the Annual Incentive Plan shall be paid in cash, as soon as practicable after appropriate financial statements for the performance period are available. However, the Annual Incentive Plan Committee may, in its sole discretion, elect to pay all or a portion of the total award value in the form of non-qualified stock options to purchase Common Stock and/or in the form of Common Stock, in lieu of paying such amount in cash. The Annual Incentive Plan Committee may also require an AIP Participant to defer up to 80% of any award otherwise payable to the AIP Participant.

Amendment or Termination. The Board of Directors of Ocwen may modify, amend or terminate the Annual Incentive Plan at any time, except that no modification, amendment or termination may adversely affect the rights of an AIP Participant under an award previously made to him without his consent.

No Assignment. Except as expressly authorized by the Annual Incentive Plan Committee, the rights under the Annual Incentive Plan, including without limitation the rights to receive any payment, shall not be sold, assigned, transferred, encumbered or hypothecated by an AIP Participant (except by testamentary disposition or intestate succession), and during the lifetime of any AIP Participant any payment shall be payable only to such AIP Participant.

Governing Law. The validity, construction and effect of the Annual Incentive Plan and any action taken or relating to the Annual Incentive Plan shall be determined in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and applicable federal law.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. Under present federal income tax regulations, AIP Participants will realize ordinary income equal to the amount of the award received in the year of receipt. Ocwen will receive a deduction for the amount constituting ordinary income to the AIP Participant, provided that the Annual Incentive Plan satisfies the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Code. It is Ocwen's intention that the Annual Incentive Plan be constructed and administered in a manner that ensures the deductibility of compensation for Ocwen under Section 162(m) of the Code. The foregoing brief summary of the effect of federal income taxation upon AIP Participants and Ocwen with respect to the Annual Incentive Plan does not purport to be complete and reference should be made to the applicable provisions of the Code. In addition, this summary does not discuss the provisions of income tax laws of any municipality, state or foreign country in which an AIP Participant may reside. Because executive officers of Ocwen are eligible to receive awards under the Annual Incentive Plan, each of them has a personal interest in the adoption of the Annual Incentive Plan.

2.1 Granting of Awards

The Committee may, in its discretion, from time to time make awards to persons eligible for participation in the Plan pursuant to which the Participant will earn compensation in the event that the Company achieve the Performance Thresholds established by the Committee.

2.2 Establishment of Performance Thresholds

Each award shall be conditioned upon the Company's achievement of one or more Performance Thresholds with respect to the Performance Measure(s) established by the Committee prior to the beginning of the applicable Performance Period. The Committee, in its discretion, may establish Performance Thresholds for the Company as a whole or for only the business unit of the Company in which a given Participant is involved, or a combination thereof. In addition to establishing a minimum performance level below which no compensation shall be payable pursuant to an award, the Committee, in its discretion, may create a performance schedule under which an amount less than the Target Award may be paid so long as the Performance Threshold has been exceeded. The Committee may adjust the Performance Thresholds and measurements to reflect significant unforeseen events; provided, however, that the Committee may not make any such adjustment with respect to any award to an individual who is then a "covered employee" as such term is defined in Regulation 1.162-27(c)(2) promulgated under Section 162(m) of the Code, or any successor provision ("Section 162(m)"), if such adjustment would cause compensation pursuant to such award to cease to be performance-based compensation under Section 162(m).

2.3 Other Award Terms

The Committee may, in its sole discretion, establish certain additional performance based conditions that must be satisfied by the Company, a business unit or the Participant as a condition precedent to the payment of all or a portion of any awards. Such conditions precedent may include, among other things, the receipt by a Participant of a specified annual performance rating and the achievement of specified performance goals by the Company, business unit or Participant.

2.4 Certification of Achievement of Performance Thresholds

The Committee shall, prior to any payment under the Plan, certify in writing the extent, if any, that the Performance Threshold has been achieved. For purposes of this provision, and for so long as the Code permits, the approved minutes of the Committee meeting in which the certification is made shall be treated as written certification.

2.5 Distribution of Awards.

Awards under the Plan shall be paid in cash as soon as practicable after audited financial statements for the Performance Period have been prepared and the Committee has certified that the Performance Threshold has been achieved.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may, in its sole discretion, elect to pay all or a portion of the total award value in the form of non-qualified stock options to purchase Common Stock, in lieu of paying such amount in cash. Any options granted as payment of an award shall be granted pursuant to the Company's 1991 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan or any successor thereto.

The Committee may also, in its sole discretion, elect to pay all or a portion of the total award value in the form of shares of Common Stock acquired by the Company in market transactions ("Treasury Stock"), in lieu of paying award in cash. Any Treasury Stock granted as payment of an award shall be granted on such terms, including deferred vesting, as the Committee may determine.

2.6 Termination of Employment.

A Participant must be actively employed by the Company on the date his or her award is to be paid ("the Payment Date") in order to be entitled to payment of any award. In the event active employment of a Participant shall be terminated before the Payment Date for any reason other than discharge for "Cause", such Participant shall not be entitled to receive any award unless otherwise determined by the Committee. A Participant discharged for Cause shall not be entitled to receive any award for the year.

2.7 Maximum Amount Available for Awards.

The aggregate maximum amount payable to any one Participant for any Performance Period shall be $2 million.

ARTICLE III - OTHER PROVISIONS

3.1 Withholding Taxes.

Whenever payments under the Plan are to be made, the Company will withhold therefrom an amount sufficient to satisfy any applicable governmental withholding tax requirements related thereto.

3.2 Adjustment in Number of Shares

Awards may be adjusted by the Committee in the manner and to the extent it determines to be appropriate in the event of changes in the outstanding shares of Common Stock by reason of stock dividends, stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, combinations, exchanges, reclassifications or other relevant changes in capitalization occurring after the date of the award.

3.3 No Right to Employment

Nothing contained in the Plan or in any Award Agreement shall confer upon any Participant any right with respect to continued employment with the Company or its subsidiaries, nor interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its subsidiaries to at any time reassign the Participant to a different job, change the compensation of the Participant or terminate the Participant's employment for any reason.

3.4 Nontransferability

A Participant's rights under the Plan, including the right to any shares or amounts payable may not be assigned, pledged, or otherwise transferred without the written consent of the Committee except, in the event of a Participant's death, to the Participant's designated beneficiary or, in the absence of such a designation, by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

3.5 Deferral of Payment

At the discretion of the Committee, a Participant may be required to defer the receipt of up to 80% of any award otherwise payable to such Participant. Such deferral shall be accomplished by the execution of a written deferral agreement approved by the Committee by the Participant prior to the expiration of the Performance Period.

3.6 Unfunded Plan

Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the Plan shall be unfunded and shall not create (or be construed to create) a trust or separate funds. With respect to any payment not yet made to a Participant, nothing contained herein shall give any Participant any rights that are greater than those of a general creditor of the Company.

3.7 Foreign Jurisdictions

The Committee shall have the authority to adopt, amend, or terminate such arrangements, not inconsistent with the intent of the Plan, as it may deem necessary or desirable to comply with the tax or other laws of foreign countries or jurisdictions in order to promote achievement of the purposes of the Plan with respect to Participants residing or working in such jurisdictions.

3.8 Other Compensation Plans

Nothing contained in this Plan shall prevent the Company from adopting other or additional compensation arrangements for employees of the Company.

ARTICLE IV - AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Board of Directors may modify, amend, or terminate the Plan at any time except that, no modification, amendment, or termination of the Plan shall adversely affect the rights of a Participant under an award previously made to such Participant without the consent of such Participant.

ARTICLE V - EFFECTIVE DATE

The Plan shall become effective immediately upon the approval and adoption thereof by the Board, but is subject to the further approval and adoption by the shareholders of the Company.

EXHIBIT B

OCWEN FINANCIAL CORPORATION
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER
NOVEMBER 7, 2002

I. PURPOSE OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee's purpose is to provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its legal and fiduciary obligations with respect to matters involving the accounting, auditing, financial reporting, internal control and legal compliance functions of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. This includes, without limitation, (a) assisting the Board's oversight of (i) the integrity of the Corporation's financial statements, (ii) the Corporation's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the Corporation's independent auditors' qualifications and independence and (iv) the performance of the Corporation's independent auditors and the Corporation's internal audit function, and (b) preparing the report required to be prepared by the Committee pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") for inclusion in the Corporation's annual proxy statement.

II. COMPOSITION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined from time to time by resolution of the Board. Each member of the Committee shall be qualified to serve on the Committee pursuant to the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") and the Sarbanes - Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act") and the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Act. Director's fees (including any additional amounts paid to chairs of committees and to members of committees of the Board) are the only compensation a member of the Committee may receive from the Corporation.

No director may serve as a member of the Committee if such director serves on the audit committee of more than two other public companies, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee. Any such determination must be disclosed in the Corporation's annual proxy statement.

The chairperson of the Committee shall be designated by the Board, provided that if the Board does not so designate a chairperson, the members of the Committee, by a majority vote, may designate a chairperson. Each member of the Committee must be "financially literate", as such qualification is interpreted by the Board in its business judgment, or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. In addition, at least one member of the Committee must have "accounting or related financial management expertise", as the Board interprets such qualification in its business judgement. Further, either (i) at least one member of the Committee must be a "financial expert", as such term is defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Act, or (ii) if no member of the Committee is a "financial expert", the Committee shall so inform the Corporation.

Any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by majority vote of the Board at the next meeting of the Board following the occurrence of the vacancy. No member of the Committee may be removed except by majority vote of the Board.

III. MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall meet once every fiscal quarter or more frequently as it shall determine is necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities. The Committee, in its discretion, may ask members of management or others to attend its meetings (or portions thereof) and to provide pertinent information as necessary. The Committee should meet separately on a periodic basis with (i) management, (ii) the director of the Corporation's internal auditing department or other person responsible for the internal audit function and (iii) the Corporation's independent auditors, in each case to discuss any matters that the Committee or any of the above persons or firms believe should be discussed privately.

A majority of the members of the Committee present in person or by means of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other shall constitute a quorum.

The Committee shall maintain minutes of its meetings and records relating to those meetings and provide copies of such minutes to the Board.

The Committee should present its conclusions with respect to the above matters, as well as its review of the lead partner of the independent auditors, and its views on whether there should be a regular rotation of the independent auditors, to the Board.
