Item 8.01 Other Events.

Ocwen Financial Corporation (Ocwen or the Company) provides the following update on regulatory matters.

As previously disclosed, Ocwen is seeking timely resolutions to the regulatory actions taken against us on April 20, 2017 or shortly thereafter by mortgage and banking regulatory agencies from 30 states and the District of Columbia and two state attorneys general that alleged deficiencies in our compliance with laws and regulations relating to our servicing and lending activities. In the Company's prior Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Ocwen made disclosures relating to resolutions with 28 of these jurisdictions.

Ocwen has entered into an additional agreement to resolve the regulatory action brought by Maryland that contains certain key terms that are similar to the agreements Ocwen previously disclosed and that Ocwen has summarized in its prior SEC filings (the Multi-State Common Settlement Terms). In addition to the Multi-State Common Settlement Terms, with the exception of the terms related to an escrow review, which will not be required in connection with Maryland borrowers, Ocwen agreed with the Maryland regulatory agency (1) to remit $500,000 to the Maryland regulator; (2) to pay amounts totaling up to $1,450,000 only in the event the Company fails to comply with certain requirements under its agreement with Maryland; (3) to provide remediation to certain borrowers, in the form of cash payments or credits to borrower accounts totaling approximately $273,500; and (4) to certain injunctive relief terms, including completion of an independent management assessment and enterprise risk assessment and other reporting requirements. In addition, with certain de minimis exceptions, Ocwen is prohibited from repurchasing shares of Ocwen stock until December 7, 2018.

As of February 26, 2018, the total number of jurisdictions where we have reached a resolution is 29.

Ocwen continues to seek resolutions with the remaining two regulatory agencies and two state attorneys general. If Ocwen is successful in reaching such resolutions, they may contain some or all of the previously disclosed Multi-State Common Settlement Terms and may also contain additional terms, including potentially monetary fines or penalties or additional restrictions on our business. There can be no assurance that Ocwen will be able to reach resolutions with the remaining regulatory agencies and state attorneys general. It is possible that the outcome of these matters, whether through negotiated settlements, court rulings or other resolutions, could be materially adverse to our business, reputation, financial condition, liquidity and results of operations.

Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements may be identified by a reference to a future period or by the use of forward-looking terminology. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. Our business has been undergoing substantial change which has magnified such uncertainties. Readers should bear these factors in mind when considering such statements and should not place undue reliance on such statements. Forward-looking statements involve a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially. In the past, actual results have differed from those suggested by forward looking statements and this may happen again. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements include those described in Ocwen's reports and filings with the SEC, including its amended 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K/A and its current and quarterly reports since such date. Anyone wishing to understand Ocwen's business should review our SEC filings. Ocwen's forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and we disclaim any obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Ocwen may post information that is important to investors on our website.
